

Wings of Excellence

Eagle Ridge Elementary School
"Soaring for Excellence"

October 2006

220 North ABC Street
Milledgeville, Georgia

Magnificent Metzker

Get ready for the best article about a great teacher! Buckle your seatbelt because this guy will blow you away! This guy's name is Joe Metzker, teacher extraordinaire!

He was born in Jonesboro, Georgia, but now he lives in central Georgia. He is married but has no children yet. He has a dog named Buddy and a cat named Lulu.

He wanted to teach because his mom was a teacher. She steered him into the direction of being a teacher. She asked him to choose between being a speech teacher, an occupational therapist, or a physical therapist. Naturally, he chose to be a speech teacher.

Before becoming a teacher, he worked at nursing homes. Mr. Metzker enjoys helping people learn. That's why he has been a teacher for eight years. He wanted to teach at Eagle Ridge because he wanted to try something new. We are so glad that he decided to come!

I asked Mr. Metzker a rather odd question. If you could eat lunch with one famous person, who would it be? He said that he would eat with Bob Edwards, the radio commentator. Mr. Metzker said he wouldn't have time to eat, though. Now, since you know a little about Mr. Metzker, you can agree with me that he's one awesome teacher!

Reported by: Delarrion Milner

A Word from Our Principal

Dear Eagle Ridge Parent/s,

Welcome to the 2006-2007 school year. We are off to a great start as we begin our third year at Eagle Ridge Elementary. We are very excited about the many wonderful academic adventures your child will take this school year. Our journeys are limited only by our imagination.

We encourage all parents to become active members of our Eagle Ridge family by joining PTO, volunteering to serve at school and on PTO activity committees, reading a book to a class, sharing career information, chaperoning field trips or just visiting your child's classroom. We value you as parents and welcome all support.

Parents are also encouraged to monitor your children's academic growth during the year. Students in grades 1-5 must meet or exceed the minimum standards on the CRCT in reading to be promoted to the next grade level; fifth graders must also pass math. Students need to come to school daily; reducing the number of absences always has a positive effect on academic achievement. We are proud to have made AYP in 2006 and hope to make it again this year.

Thanks for your continued support as we continue to "Soar for Excellence" at Eagle Ridge.

Sincerely,
Jeanette Scott

Important Dates

- | | |
|------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Nov. 1-8, 2006 | Book Fair |
| Nov. 10, 2006 | Midterm Ends |
| Nov. 20-24, 2006 | Thanksgiving Holidays |
| Nov. 27, 2006 | Progress Reports |
| Nov. 30, 2006 | Student of the Month |
| Dec. 5, 2006 | PTO Meeting |
| Dec. 5-14, 2006 | Santa Secret Shop |
| Dec.11, 2006 | School Council |
| Dec.19, 2006 | Early Release Day |
| Dec. 20, 2006 | Early Release/
End of Semester |

QUOTE QUIZ --- "I meant what I said and I said what I meant.... ?"

An elephant's faithful one hundred percent!"

Have you read these words in a book somewhere? The Media Center will give a prize to one student who correctly identifies the book from which the quote was taken. Drop your entry at the Media Center. Listen to the News Show for more QUOTE QUIZ contests!

Contributing authors and illustrators for this edition of Wings of Excellence are students from the classes of Ms. Brandt, Ms. Dominy, Ms. Burns, Ms. Tyson, Ms. Allen, Ms. Watson, Ms. Flournoy, Ms. Lightsey, and Ms. Pettengill. Special thanks to our roving reporters from Ms. Meeks' fifth grade OE class. More roving reports will be featured in the next edition of Wings of Excellence.

Kindergarten

I see... by Ms. Brandt's class

I see people sitting on a bench. Elaina Long
I see grass. Jayla Jackson
I see a twisty on the playground. Ni'Asia Kelly
I see monkey bars. LaQuavion Bolston
I see lights. Jaquai Dixon
I see kids sliding. Sylisha Dyous
I see flowers. BreAsia Ford
I see trees. Bruce-George LaRoche
I see Eagle Ridge. Dontavious Holsey
I see grass. Ar'Lexusia Watkins
I see trees. Jaylen Sanford
I see cars. Keonna Lewis
I see flowers. David Vanlandingham
I see steps. Zoey Monica
I see a gate. Brianna Thomas
I see a flagpole. Terry Sims
I see swings. Madison McDaniel
I see benches. Johnny Parker

I See Colors!

Mrs. Dominy's & Mrs. Wood's Class

I see red tomatoes (Eric).
I see blue berries (Lauryn).
I see purple glasses (Amanda).
I see orange ice creams (Jikira).
I see yellow bananas (Davion).
I see pink pigs (Chamblee).
I see brown hats (Alexis).
I see white milk (Shea'leisha).
I see green grass (Jaylin).
I see black baskets (Felicia).
I see red apples (Gvon).
I see blue pencils (Angel).
I see purple shirts (Shanyia).
I see orange crayons (Dajaisha).
I see yellow pencils (Bridgette).
I see pink bows (Nykeisha).
I see brown scissors (Jataevious).
I see white paper (Mallory).
I see green construction paper (Tameara).
I see black markers (Zoe).

Meet Mrs. Farmer

Mrs. Farmer is a new kindergarten teacher here at ERE. She is originally from New York. Later she moved to London, England and taught fourth and fifth graders. She taught them calligraphy and other subjects. I bet she has great penmanship. Then she moved to Griffin, Georgia and taught there. Now she resides in Milledgeville with her husband and two dogs and teaches here, hopefully for a while. Away from school she enjoys needlepoint and listening to music. I asked her, if she could eat lunch with three people, living or not, who they would be. She said they would be her grandmother, her former Assistant principal, and her favorite authors, V.C. Andrews and John Grisham. She picked these people because she thought they were very knowledgeable, interesting, enjoyable, and she could learn a lot from them. I hope you enjoyed getting to know Mrs. Farmer a little better. Reported by: Taylor Wooden, 5th grade

Meet Ms. Lalewicz

Ms. Lalewicz is a new kindergarten teacher here at ERE. She is originally from Buffalo, New York. She moved to New Jersey and taught kindergarten at a Christian school. Later she moved to Horseheads, New York to teach at another school. Finally, she moved to nearby Eatonton. She enjoys working and being with students, but she doesn't like all of the paperwork that comes along with it. When she is out of school she enjoys walking and going to gym. In the future, she wants to get married and have children. Also, she wants to keep teaching. WELCOME MS. LALEWICZ!!!!!!!
Reported by: Taylor Wooden, 5th grade

Meet Mrs. Epps

Mrs. Epps is a new teacher at ERE. She grew up in Milledgeville. Her cheerleading coach in high school inspired her to become a teacher. She started teaching in 1997. She's taught at Oak Hill and John Milledge. She decided to teach kindergarten because she likes the lower grade and the younger students. Her least favorite thing about teaching is the paper work. Her favorite thing about teaching is seeing the children learn. In her spare time she likes to sing and go to University of Georgia football games. Go Dawgs! She hopes that her first year at ERE is going to go well. Those are just a few things about our new kindergarten teacher. Please welcome her to Eagle Ridge Elementary.
Reported by: Quanisha Trawick, 5th grade

First Grade

by Lyonnie B.

Spidy by Dylan Williams
Spidy is our spider. He is 2 inches long. He is a rubber bug. He got wet and grew.

Our Fish
by Tronzhiyus Moore
We have a Betta fish. His name is Rainbow Fish. He is blue.

Wrestling
By: Trey Johnson

Wrestling is fun and you can make money. Wrestling is painful sometimes. I like wrestling.

Mom
By: Cam' Ron Thomas

My mom is beautiful. I like my mom. She buys me things when I am good.

Snuggles
by Kody Smith

We have a pet rat. Her name is Snuggles. She is 4 inches long and she weighs 6 unifix cubes. She is brown and white.

Fudge Bar
by Makayla Butts

I ate a fudge bar. It was frozen and brown and delicious and cold.

Logan
By: Logan Nicoson

Logan can do a lot for me. Logan can do a headstand. Logan can do a cartwheel. Logan can have a mom and dad.

Mommy
By: Erica Green

My Mom is the best mom. She works at a doctor's place. I bet she does not get hurt. She is a pretty girl. I love my Mom.

Friends
By: Jermerecia Washington

My friend likes to come over to my house. She likes to play with me.

My Brother
By: Zac Daniel

My brother and I play games. My brother and I tell jokes. My brother is funny.

Magic Treehouse
by Tre Banks

CATS
By: CAMERON ROLAND

My CAT IS GRAY. My CAT IS ALSO BLACK. My CAT CAN HAVE KITTENS.

DOGS
By: VICTORIA SMITH
My DOG IS FUN TO PLAY WITH. My DOG IS COOL. My DOG LIKES TO PLAY.

McDonalds
By: Bakari Webster

I love McDonalds. McDonalds is my favorite place. I love hamburgers. It is a nice place. McDonalds has people.

Mrs. Burns

Mrs. Burns is a new first grade teacher here at ERE. She is from Texas. She moved here when her daughter in Dublin, Georgia lost her son around Christmas time. Mrs. Burns and her husband came her permanently to comfort their daughter.

She loves children. She believes kids are the future of the world. She thought if she could make a difference in kids' lives they could grow up and be somebody. She likes to play with kids and just have fun with them.

In 1971 she became a parent and began teacher her own kids. Then in 1990 she became a teacher. She loves teaching but doesn't like the paperwork and the hard tests that kids have to take.

Her role model for being a teacher is Ron Clark. Ron Clark was a teacher at an Inner City Harlem School. He believed all kids could be taught to make a difference in the world. He wrote a book about 55 rules kids should follow, The Essential 55. He has inspired her to be a better teacher.

Her goal in life is to be the best grandma. Her hobbies are her grandchildren, reading, playing games, and swimming. I bet she spends a lot of time with her grandchildren.

It was nice getting to know Mrs. Burns a little better. Welcome to Eagle Ridge!

Reported by: Malaquias Alexander, 5th grade

Second Grade

After reading The Important Book by Margaret Wise Brown, our class wrote our own Important poem.

The important thing about Mrs. Allen's class is that we have brilliant kids.
We do our best,
We are good writers,
We are good readers,
We are smart,
We are great thinkers,
We are the bomb,
We love doing math,
We LOVE TALKING,
We show kindness,
We have the best teacher,
We respect the principal,
And we have the best classroom.
But the important thing about Mrs. Allen's class is that we have brilliant kids.

The Farm by Emilee Dunn

I love the farm and I wish I could live on the farm. I could live on the farm only if Kay would win the lottery. If we had a white horse and a brown horse, I would name the white one Lightning and the brown horse Thunder. I would feed them in the morning and at night. I would take care of them. I would also brush them. Lightning is going to be the queen and Thunder will be the prince.

The American Flag by KeAza Hall

The American flag has the colors of red, white, and blue. And it has fifty stars and they are white. Have you ever seen the American flag? It's amazing! And it is huge. There is one on a pole at Eagle Ridge. The pole is tall. It is about twenty feet tall!

My Cousin Maya by JaDarius Scott

I have 200 cousins. One of my cousins is named Maya. Maya threw up on me. Maya hit me and scratched me. She is only six months old and she only has two teeth on the bottom. Maya wants me. When I go to her house she just crawls to me. Maya sleeps a lot. My bad cousin wakes her up.

My Mom

by Ricquan Morris

My mom is the greatest mom I ever had. She wakes me up on time. She makes me go to sleep on time. She helps me with my homework. My mom is the best!

Manatees

by Grayson Goodwin

A manatee is a cousin of a seal. They are sweet. Manatees are chubby. Manatees are fast. Manatees eat fish. Seals also eat fish and are fast.

My Dad

by Matthew Harvill

My dad drives fast. He is a volunteer firefighter. He goes to fires. He is with East Baldwin fire department. We went to a call when a tree was down in the road. The tree was on the right side of the road.

Timmy the Bear

by Ra'Keyla Rayford

One time there was a bear named Timmy. He was going to bed. He couldn't go to sleep so he got up and got some water. Then, he went back to his room. Then, he fell asleep.

After The Rain

by Ricardo Plascencia

Yesterday after the rain stopped, I played in the mud with my brother. We had a mud fight. It was a tie. Afterwards, we washed up. Then we played video games.

Our class read The Important Book by Margaret Brown Wise and we made our own book afterwards.

The most important thing about Ms. Watson's class is that we write like 10th graders.

We are children.
We are smart.
We are the best.
We are super.
We are happy.
We are well-behaved.
We are cool.

We are trained by our teacher.

We are fantastic.

We wear different clothes.

We go to school.

We leave school at 2:30.

We have homework.

We have Fun Friday!

But, the most important thing about Ms. Watson's class is that we write like 10th graders.

A Trip To Macon

by Morgan Rafalko

Yesterday, I went to Macon. We went to Smiley's Flea Market. We had fun there. There is a mall there. It was a fantastic trip. At the end of the day, we got some boiled peanuts.

Under The Ocean

by Shamarcus Terrell

Yesterday I went under the water to see creatures. Under the ocean I looked for fish and sharks. They were so cool.

Third Grade

Ms. Chester

Reported by: Jamarcus Jarrett, 5th grade

Check out this extremely cool teacher. Her name is Candi Chester. She is a new third grade teacher at ERE. Ms. Chester is from Milledgeville and has a small family. She is her mother's only daughter, and her father has three other kids. Ms. Chester always wanted to be a teacher. When I asked her what she liked about ERE, she said all of the A.R. books available. Ms. Chester likes to read and exercise when she is not teaching. Before she came to ERE, she was a case manager for DFACS. Her goal this year is to be the best teacher that she can be. I also asked her if she could eat lunch with a famous person who it would be? She said Oprah Winfrey because she has done so much and so much for others. I met Ms. Chester and she's an awesome new teacher.

Proud To Be Me

by Kiamber Reaves

I am proud to be me because...
I make merit list and the honor roll.
I have very, very, very, very, very good parents.
I know how to handle myself.
I have many different unique friends
When I was born my father and brother were there;
my brother sang me a lullaby.
I sing with the Greater Faith Sunshines,
I have my own room.
I am a citizen of the United States.
I love my community.

Proud To Be Me by Margaret Justice

I am proud to be me because...
I am in the third grade.
Everyday I learn something new.
I sleep on the top bunk.
My mother and father support me.
My brother is always there to help me.
My family is a good family.
My mother and father are nice to me.
James is the best brother;
He will buy me a puppy one day.

- H - Harvest - Halloween
- A- Autumn
- L- Lots of candy
- L- Lots of sugar
- O- Outfits that are scary
- W- Wear costumes
- E- Evil witches
- E - Eating treats
- N- New houses to go to.

By : Kendrick Robinson

Meet Mrs. Hall

Mrs. Hall is from Duluth, Georgia, and she has a husband and two kids: Issac and Morgan. She wanted to become a teacher because that is what she thought Jesus wanted her to do. She's been teaching for five years. Before teaching she went to college. The thing she likes most about teaching is seeing the children learn something. The thing she likes least is the paper work. She loves to read out of school. She hopes to teach forever. I asked her if she could eat lunch with three people living or not who would they be and why. She said she would eat with Jesus because she wants to see Him face to face, her grandmother because she is dead, and with her parents because she loves them. It's great to have Mrs. Hall teaching 3rd grade here at ERE.

Reported by: Travaris Thompson, 5th grade

Fourth Grade

The Boy who Lived (an excerpt) by Nicholas Hess

Chapter 2: Getting into the Adventure

The city wasn't big. I explored the city and found to my liking a shop nearby that has plenty of cheap food that I could eat. If I could just find a job to get some money, I might be able to stop my stomach from complaining about this trip so much. I searched for a job high and low. Finally I found a job as a blacksmith apprentice. All I had to do was mine rocks, but it was hard work. I had this boss called Michael and he was the strictest boss I could imagine. How are kids allowed to work here? I'm just 14, not even legal on Earth. I got only three crowns for 12 hours of work. That is the money they use on this strange planet. It is not the best job, but it is my only way to get home. Michael doesn't like me so I will have to stay out of his way and do as I'm told. I found out from Michael that tickets for a portal to earth are 1,528 C (Crowns). Boy, this is going to take forever to save up for my trip home. It's been a while. Now I am exploring the city. I like a certain part of the city: its town square. It has a nice fountain, a hoverboard rental shop, and a pickax shop. If I could get a second job in the pickax shop, it would not take long to get some money for the trip home. All in all I'll have a ticket in no time.

The Ghost got Fooled by Jameria Bateman

Once upon a time there was a ghost who live on the top floor of a 20 story building. One day he decided to go out to scare people. He went out to the woods to see if he could find some campers to scare. Suddenly he saw this small bush move; the more he looked, the more the bush shook. He walked on down the path and he saw something staring at him from behind a tree. He was getting very nervous. He walked on some more and something started chasing him. He ran as fast as he could, but the thing started catching up with him as he went. At least he got tired from running, so he just stopped in the middle of the path. What he was running from was a baby squirrel!

Why I am proud to be an American By Chelsea Waters

I am proud to be an American because we can wear what we want. There is no slavery. Also we have holidays and weekends. In other countries, they get no weekend and breaks. We can go to any church. In other countries you can be killed for being a certain religion. That's called freedom of religion. I like getting the privilege of all these things. I like being an American.

Why I am proud to be an American. By Kibias Mosley

I am proud to be an American. We have freedom. No one can kill me or fight me. America is a good place to live. It is so fun to be an American because it is safe. It is a very very good place to live. That's why I am proud to be an American.

Crime Doesn't Pay by Hakeem Holsey

Once upon a time, there was an explorer. He was going to an amusement park. He wanted to ride a roller coaster, but the line was so long. He broke in line because the person was not looking. Then he rode the rollercoaster and got off. He was fixing to ride a water slide when the man he broke in front of kept following him everywhere he went. Then he left the amusement park and went home. The man was still following him. So he called the police and the man got locked up. But he got in trouble for breaking in front of him!

Fifth Grade

Mrs. Knox

Welcome Mrs. Knox to Eagle Ridge Elementary. Mrs. Knox was born in Atlanta but went to elementary and high school in Washington, Ga. She is married to Bobby Knox, and they have two grown children named Bobby Jr. and Sherida. She also has three grandchildren.

Mrs. Knox decided to become a teacher when she was very, very small. She used to play school with her brother and sister and that is what inspired her to become a teacher.

She taught for thirty-one years and then retired and stayed home. Then she started substituting for about two years. Afterwards, she became an EIP teacher, and she has been doing this for five years.

Her favorite thing about teaching is working with boys and girls. Her least favorite thing about teaching is when boys and girls don't care about doing their work. She loves working on the computer when she is outside of school.

Her future goal is to continue to do all she can for boys and girls for as long as she can. She also would like to travel more than she does now.

She wants you to know that she is a firm teacher that demands that every boy and girl work to his or her full potential.

I asked her if she could have lunch with a person living or not who it would be? She said, "It would be a boy or girl from her class that didn't get to go out with anybody." It doesn't have to be someone famous because she likes to help people.

Mrs. Knox is a great teacher at Eagle Ridge Elementary.
Reported by: Chris Guy

Welcome Mrs. Channell

Mrs. Channell is a new teacher to the fifth Grade. She previously lived in Greensboro and taught second grade at Jasper Primary School. She came here to start her second year of teaching so she could get closer to home. She is married and expecting a child in February. She knew that she wanted to be a teacher when she was in high school. She enjoys working and being with the children, but doesn't like all the paper work that comes along with being a teacher. When she is out of school, she likes to read, walk, and spend time with her family. In the future, she wants to go back to college to get her master's degree and wants to become an Assistant Principal. Welcome to ERE Mrs. Channell!
Reported by: Kassie Kotrick

Meet Mrs. Fietkau

Mrs. Fietkau (Feet Cow) is new to our school and teaches PEC. Mrs. Fietkau was born in Oklahoma. She has been in Milledgeville for 12 years. Mrs. Fietkau has a daughter starting college and two sons attending Eagle Ridge. Before coming to Eagle Ridge she was a stay at home mom. She said, "Eagle Ridge is a very good school and that's why I wanted to teach here." She wanted to become a teacher because she thought it was very important to learn. Away from school, she loves to read and write. Her favorite author is Grace Livingston Hill. When I asked her who she would want to have lunch with, living or not, she chose Flannery O'Connor, Grace Livingston Hill, and Mark Twain. She chose these people because they lived colorful lives and we could learn so much from them. Mrs. Fietkau was a very interesting person to talk to. Now you know a little about Mrs. Fietkau.

Reported by: Kassie Kotrick

All About Mrs. Trawick

Mrs. Trawick is a new PEC 5th grade teacher here at ERE. Although she is new to our school, she has lived in Milledgeville all of her life. She has two sons and is getting married in September. Congratulations!! Last year she decided that she was going to be a teacher because she always liked working with children. Before becoming a teacher she was a family consultant for therapeutic foster kids. This is Mrs. Trawick's first year of teaching. She thinks Eagle Ridge is exciting. She says the best thing about teaching is being with kids all day and so far there is nothing bad about it. Mrs. Trawick likes to shop and read. Her favorite author is Maya Angelo. Her goal is to retire from teaching one day. I asked whom she would like to eat lunch with and she said Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., President Bush, and our Governor Sonny Purdue because they are her heroes. Welcome to ERE, Mrs. Trawick.

Reported by: Kassie Kotrick

Welcome Miss Ford

Miss Ford grew up in Massachusetts. She has four sisters, one brother, and a bunch of nieces and nephews. She is getting married in November, so her family is growing. While she was studying regular hearing, her teachers said there were not enough jobs in that field and suggested that she go into special education. She has been teaching for about 24 years. She started teaching Deaf at a school, and loved it. She knew that she wanted to teach the Deaf forever then.

She decided to be a teacher when she was six. She loved to play school, and if she could not be the teacher she would quit. She loves the students. She likes to watch their faces brighten up when they learn something new. The part she dislikes is the paper work. She enjoys reading, doing puzzles, and playing with her dogs outside of school. She would like people to know that her title is Teacher of the Deaf and Hard of hearing. She also wanted people to know that she is proud to be getting married in November.

I asked her if she could eat lunch with three people living or not who would they be and why. She said she would like to eat lunch with Harrison Ford because she thinks he is a great actor. She would like to eat with Dr. I. King Jordan because he is the president of a Deaf university, the only one in the country. She would also like to eat with George Washington to find out what the country was like back then.

Reported by: Caldwell Pelton

Meet Ms. Holton

Ms. Holton is a new 2nd grade teacher here at ERE. She is from Soperton, Georgia and is 24 years old. She is single with no children. When she was in school she knew that she wanted a job that meant something. She didn't want a boring job either. She attended Georgia Southern and while working with the after school program she decided to be a teacher. She says it was hard learning how to be a teacher, and her first year of teaching is difficult too. She tried getting a job at a lot of schools, but Mrs. Scott called her first. She loves being with the children, playing games, and having fun. She likes to find ways to make learning fun. She feels that the most important thing about her job is to show her students love. Outside of school, she likes to play with her dogs, ride her motorcycle, and listen to music. She loves music so much that when I asked her whom she would like to eat lunch with, living or not, she said Celine Dion. Now you know a little more about Ms. Holton.

Reported by: Tierra Sanford

Miss Robinson

Miss Robinson is from Snellville, Georgia, and has two brothers. She has wanted to teach for all her life. However, this is her first year of teaching. Before teaching she wanted to become a chef. Her favorite thing about teaching is seeing the look on a child's face when they understand something. The thing she likes the least is getting up early. Outside of school she likes to run and play sports. She hopes to teach her whole life. When I asked her who she would like to eat lunch with, she said she would love to eat lunch with her family because she misses them. She also said Ron Clark so he could teach her how to make children listen, and Maya Angelou because she loves her books. It's great having Miss Robinson teach second grade at ERE. Reported by: Travaris Thompson

Mrs. Butts

Mrs. Butts is new to second grade at ERE. She is originally from Wrens, Georgia. She moved here in 1994. She has three kids and two-step kids. She also has a passion for teaching.

"I think kids should have an education," says Mrs. Butts.

Before she became a teacher she was a secretary, collector, and loan adjustor. "Teaching is really what I wanted to do," said Mrs. Butts. So she decided to become a teacher in 2002. Mrs. Butts went back to school to get an education in teaching. She loves everything about teaching. This is her third year of teaching. She taught in Macon for two years and now here.

Her mother is her role model. She has inspired her to be what she is today. In the future she wants to continue her education to become a principal. When she is away from school she likes to travel, read, and spend time with her family.

Hope you enjoyed getting to know Mrs. Butts!

Reported by: Malaquias Alexander